WILLIAM H. TAFT ELECTED PRESIDENT

Republican Sweep Places Taft in the Presidency With Electoral Votes To Spare.

C. E. HUGHES WINS IN NEW YORK

William Howard Taft, the Republican standard-bearer, was yesterday elected president of the United States by a majority of the popular and electoral vote which will equal the phenomenal record of Theodore Roosevelt four years ago. New York, Ohio, Indiana—practically all the north, east and west except Nebraska and Oklahoma—went for Taft, giving him at least 306 electoral votes. In Ohio and Indiana the vote was very close. Late reports say New York City went for Taft, the first time it has ever given a Republican presidential candidate a majority.

The "solid South," including Missouri and Maryland, remains Democratic.

Indications point to the re-election of Governor Charles E. Hughes in New York state. He carried the upper counties by a majority sufficiently large to overcome Chanler's Democratic lead in New York City.

Taft carried Minnesota, but John Johnson, her Democratic governor, has won re-election for the third time.

GAS COMPANIES ARE MERGED

Oil City Fuel Supply Company And United Natural Gas Company Unite.

By a merger placed on record at Harrisburg Thursday of last week the Oil City Fuel Supply Company and the United Natural Gas Company have been combined. The former corporation is the one that has supplied Reynoldsville, DuBois, Brookwayville and Brookville with gas for the past nineteen years. Harrisburg dispatch says: Governor Stuart approved the largest merger which has taken place in the state in many months, two Oil City companies going together under the name of the United Natural Gas Company. The companies were the Oil City Fuel Supply Company and the United Natural Gas Company and their combined capital will be $15,000,000. The officers are: Walter Jennings, New York, president; L. L. Graham, Oil City, secretary; Joseph Seep, Titusville, W. W. Richardson, Buffalo, J. B. Crawford, H. R. Seldon, F. Sartorius, Oil City, and the officers, as directors. As a result of the merger the state treasury received a check for $32,333.34 as the bonus on the stock.

Important Equity Case.

Judge Allison O. Smith, of Clearfield, was here the first of the week hearing testimony in a case in which many of the citizens of Punxsutawney are interested, and in which a large number of witnesses were heard. The case grew out of the desire of the borough and county for a grade crossing at Elk street, Punxsutawney, which crossing the railroad company is not disposed to grant. Inasmuch as the erection of a county bridge hinges on the securing of the crossing, the county is an interested party. After hearing the testimony Judge Smith adjourned court on Wednesday afternoon, and argument of the matter will go over to the January term.—Brookville Republican.

EMPIRE TUNNEL ALMOST FINISHED

Big Project on the B., R. & P. Will be Completed By December First.

It is expected that work will be completed on the big tunnel at Empire on the B., R. & P. road in another month, and that before December 1st trains will be going through it. The work of double tracking this piece of the road between Brookwayville and Empire has been going on for about two years and has cost a great many thousands of dollars, some fifteen hundred men being employed at one time on the grading of the road and building the tunnel.

The fine mason work on both ends of the tunnel has just been finished, and the work of lining the inside with brick and cement is fast drawing to a close. Railroad men who have been watching the work think it will likely be completed in a month or six weeks, and it is likely trains will be whirling through this great long tunnel about the first of December. This improvement will be a great help to the road in handling their trains and give them a better grade.—Brookwayville Record.

SPLENDID PRIZES FOR CORN.

Eight Silver Cups and Forty-Five Cash Prizes Offered to Pennsylvania Corn Growers.

Those who have good corn should not fail to select ten ears to show at the Third Annual Corn Show to be held by the Pennsylvania Live Stock Breeders' Association at Harrisburg, January 20-29 next. Eight silver cups, ranging in value from $25 to $50, will be offered in the various classes and 45 cash prizes in addition. A $50 cup is offered for the best show of 100 ears made by any subordinate Grange in the state. Save your best corn for this show. The annual meeting of the State Board of Agriculture, the Penn's Dairy Union, and the Penn's Live Stock Breeder's Association will be held on these dates and the best talent in the country will be on hand to give instruction and demonstrations. Exhibits of dairy products for which liberal prizes are offered will be a feature, and the Penn's Experiment Station and the State Live Stock Sanitary Board will also make exhibits worth seeing. For corn entry blanks, prize lists, etc., address Secretary E. S. Bayard, East End, Pittsburgh, Pa. There are no entrance fees. All Pennsylvania corn growers are invited to participate in the show, which is free in every particular.

Glendale.

The forest fires that have been raging in this vicinity are now under control.

Mrs. Walter Moore has been visiting her mother in Rockdale the past week. H. J. Meyer, of Beechtree, gave his moving picture show at the Hornstown Grange hall, Friday night October 30, showing the "Passion Play," a wonderful and magnificent production of a touching drama on the life of Christ. On Saturday night Mr. Meyer again entertained us with comical pictures and popular illustrated songs. Those people who went to Reynoldsville Saturday night certainly missed a treat.

Felix Smith has remodeled and painted his house.

E. E. Newcome spent last week on his farm here harvesting his potatoes and sowing rye.

The Halloween social at the Horn Run school was postponed on account of the entertainment at Grange Hall, until Thursday night, Nov. 5th. Every one come.

H. J. Bussard had the bumper crop of potatoes, there being 245 bushels per acre.

Some of the people of this neighborhood are taking their stock quite a distance for water.

Charles Hopkins, who has been employed on the L. W. Moore farm during the summer, is leaving this place for Falls Creek.

Civic pride has taken hold of the citizens of this community and it is reported that they are going to improve and beautify the school grounds of Horn Run. We hope this report is not false.

Republicans Elect County Ticket and E. T. McGaw Wins Minority Commissionership.

LONGWELL GETS A HEAVY VOTE

Jefferson county rolled up its usual Republican majority yesterday, electing the entire Republican county ticket from treasurer to coroner. E. T. McGaw has won his fight for re-election as the minority commissioner.

Early returns indicate much ticket splitting in the Assembly contest. Longwell and Mitchell are elected but A. D. Deemer, the Democratic and Prohibition fusion candidate, received a very heavy vote.

In Reynoldsville the feature of the election was the casting of twenty-nine Socialistic votes in the second precinct. Taft carried both precincts.

The county ticket elected is: Assembly, Longwell and Mitchell; Register, Campbell; Prothonotary, Irvin; Sheriff, Galbraith; Treasurer, Buffington; Commissioners, Kelly, Reitz and McGaw; Auditors, Adams, Cochran and Neal; Coroner, Sayers.

POPULAR PRIEST CALLED HENCE

Rev. Father Bernard Lynch Was Well Known Over The County.

Rev. Father Bernard Lynch, pastor of St. Tobias Catholic church at Brookwayville, died at the rectory in that place at 6.00 p. m. Wednesday, October 28, after three weeks' illness with heart trouble. Solemn requiem high mass was held in St. Tobias church at 10.00 a. m. Friday and the body was taken to Osceola Friday afternoon and interment made in the Catholic cemetery at that place Saturday forenoon. Father Lynch was born in Ireland in 1852 and was 56 years old at time of death. He located at Brookwayville ten years ago and established a church at that place and finally, by his executive ability and zeal, a handsome and commodious church and rectory were erected. Fathers Brady and Lynch, of Reynoldsville, attended the funeral service at Brookwayville and Father Brady went to Osceola to attend the service at that place.

Be Natural.

Heaven help the man who imagines he can dodge enemies by trying to please everybody! If such an individual ever succeeds, pass him over this way that we may have one look at his mortal remains ere he vanishes away, for surely this earth cannot be his abiding place. Now we do not infer that one should be going through this world trying to find beams to knock and thump his head against, disputing every man's opinion, fighting and elbowing and crowding all who differ from him. That, again, is another extreme. Other people have their opinions, so have you. Don't fall into the error of supposing they will respect you more for turning your coat every day to match the color of theirs. Wear your own clothes in spite of wind and weather, storms and sunshine. It costs the irresolute ten times the trouble to wind, and shuffle, and twist than it does honest manly independence to stand.—Ridgway Advocate.

DANGEROUS FIRE AT SYKESVILLE

Plant of the Sykesville Milling Company Was Destroyed By Fire.

A fire which destroyed one of Sykesville's industries and entailed a severe loss upon the owner, broke out at about 3:30 o'clock Wednesday morning and only the hand of kind providence prevented the blaze from spreading and wiping out the majority of buildings of town.

The fire was discovered by Jehu Jehu and J. J. Jefferies at the hour above mentioned at the plant of the Sykesville Milling Company which was located near to their homes and also close to the business corner of town. When discovered, the flames had gained such a headway as to make it impossible to save the plant so that Messrs. Jehu and Jefferies started out through the town calling a general alarm.

The inflammable character of the buildings in the neighborhood and the lack of water to combat the flames caused consternation among those who had been rudely aroused from their slumbers and those who had collected at the scene of the fire could only look on and hope that the blaze would not spread to the adjoining buildings.

A slight fall of rain and a heavy atmosphere kept the sparks and heat within a safe limit and although some of the nearby houses were for a short time in great danger and there was practically no water to stay the flames should they spread, no other buildings were ignited.

The plant of the Milling Co. was totally destroyed. The loss as estimated by A. L. Zimmerman, the owner, is $6,500, against an insurance of $3,000.—Sykesville Post-Dispatch.

FORMER BURGESS EXPIRES

S. B. J. Saxton Had Resided In Reynoldsville About Forty Years.

BURIED SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Samuel B. J. Saxton, a well known citizen of Reynoldsville, who had resided in the town about forty years, died at his home on Main street at 2.10 p. m. Friday, October 30, 1908. Mr. Saxton had been a sufferer for ten years with locomotorataxia. He had been confined to bed for one year and his suffering at times was intense. Mr. Saxton was ready and willing to depart this life. He died a Christian.

S. B. J. Saxton was born at Rimersburg, Clarion Co., Pa., Jan. 27, 1848, and was 60 years, 9 months and 3 days old at time of death. He came to Reynoldsville in 1869 and July 3, 1870, was united in marriage to Miss Cordelia Conser in the house where Mr. Saxton died. Rev. Burton, a Methodist Episcopal minister, performed the wedding ceremony. With the exception of about six years spent in the oil country Mr. and Mrs. Saxton spent their married life in Reynoldsville. Four children were born unto this couple but they all died some years ago and Mrs. Saxton is the only member of this family now living.

Mr. Saxton was an active Republican politician before his health failed. He was Burgess of this borough in 1890 and was a Justice of the peace five years. At one time he was an active member of the Knights of Pythias, I. O. O. F. and American Mechanics. Mr. Saxton is survived by his widow, one brother and two sisters, James Saxton, of Pittsburgh, Mrs. Kate McPherson and Mrs. William Campbell, of Clarion.

Funeral service was held at the family residence at 2.00 p. m. Sunday, conducted by Rev. John P. Black, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, and interment was made in Beulah cemetery. Henry Priester, undertaker, had charge of the funeral.

Mrs. Emma Rew, of Franklin, Pa., Mrs. Fremont Johnston, of Ashtabula, Ohio, sisters of Mrs. Saxton, and Mrs. W. A. Thorn, of Clearfield, Pa., attended the funeral.

The hymns sang at the funeral, "Lead Kindly Light" and "Nearer My God to Thee," were selected by Mr. Saxton several days before he died.
